The only way for a true apples to apples comparison is too include military flight costs. I'm sure McCarthy and Jackson took some, maybe not a lot, but we may not know the true cost of their foreign and domestic travel without it.

The travel cost numbers you gave me may not reflect military flights. The cost of the G7 Italy trip tops $120,000 when the military flight to NYC is factored in, but as I remember from covering other budgets, that flight wouldn't come out of EPA's budget.
